

Tender for competition 2018

Bayreuth-Scholarship and Richard-Wagner-Award 2018

The »Richard-Wagner-Stiftung Leipzig« offers three scholarships for the Bayreuth Festival as a reward for the work of Richard Wagner in the categories »vocals«, »instrumental music« and »correpetition«. A jury will identify the first awardee of the Richard-Wagner-Award out of these three scholars.

The Richard-Wagner-Award for young artists is endowed with 5.000 Euros.

The selection of the scholarship holders and the first awardee will take place on February 1st /2nd February 2018 at the Klinger-Villa in Leipzig. The Richard-Wagner-Award will be presented in the context of the Richard-Wagner-Festtage Leipzig on 13. May 2018. at 11:00 a.m. at the Opera house in Leipzig.

Accepted are candidates up to the age of 35, who currently study at a European university, a conservatory or an equivalent institution.

The contest will be put out for tender throughout Europe at state universities of music, conservatories as well as on equivalent institutions.

Candidates should apply with their curriculum vitae, an assessment of their institute, information about their contribution to the competition, a letter of motivation, and an mp3 recording. Candidates will be informed about their acceptance for the competition until December 23rd 2017.

Competition procedure:

- Musical recital of at least 10 up to max. 20 min with a work of free choice and a work – if possible – by Richard Wagner or from the surrounding of Richard Wagner
- A short interview with the members of the jury (max. 10 min)

The jury is set up as follows:

- Jasmin Solfaghari (chair), opera director, former professor of Hochschule für Musik und Theater Leipzig and coach for singers
- Franziska Severin, opera director and representative artistic director, Oper Leipzig
- Prof. Alessandra Althoff-Pugliese, Mozarteum Salzburg, University of Biel/Bienne
- Prof. KS Hanna Schwarz, Hochschule für Musik Hamburg
- Peter Korfmacher, music journalist and head of the culture section of the Leipziger Volkszeitung

The jury is entitled to interrupt competition contributions and, if necessary, to ask for repetition. A Richard-Wagner-Scholarship for the Bayreuth Festival can only be assigned, if the participant was not scholarship holder in Bayreuth so far.

On the second day of competition a personal consultation for the participant with the jury will be enabled.

Overnight accommodations and breakfast will be provided for the participants of the contest. Arrival and departure is at the participants own responsibility.
